Consequences

Students that choose to attend Sponne Sixth Form automatically agree to comply with the dress code above. Should a student not adhere to the dress code, the following consequences will be put in place. Sixth Form tutors will check dress code on a daily basis.

1)   First offence - informal student warning to rectify - not logged.

2)   Second offence - agreed time with tutor to rectify dress code issue and this is logged on Go 4 Schools. Students given one week to sort the issue.

3)   Third offence - tutor to contact parents and this is logged. Parents made aware of the situation - tutors refer back to the dress code document above.

4)   Continuous non-adherence to the dress code - social and study time becomes directed time until the parent/guardian meeting takes place. Parent/guardian meeting with Head of Sixth Form and SLT link/Headteacher.

5)   Persistent failure following the meeting will lead to all social and study time becoming directed time until the student adheres to the code.
