

Understanding PE Curriculum Design, Development & Implementation
Wednesday 13th July 2022 - 13:00-16:00

This training is facilitated by Carol Gronow

Carol is a former Head of Service in Cambridgeshire County Council who led support schools in the Education Directorate, including the Education ICT Service, Personal, Social, Health and Education (PSHE) Service, 3 Outdoor Centres, PE & Outdoor Education Advisory Services, Duke of Edinburgh scheme and Professional CPD Centres.

Carol's experience in Education included, Assistant Headteacher, Deputy Head of an Outdoor Centre, to County Adviser for Physical Education and Manager of the Cambridgeshire Advisory Service.

She is a Partnership Teaching Tutor for PGCE Programme at the University of Cambridge, a Consultant on the Sport England National Teacher programme.

The training will enable school staff to:

- To consider what your ambitious PE Curriculum offer should be and why.
- To consider what is the best approach, organisation and content to achieve your aims.
- To consider the impact of your ambitious curriculum on students outcomes and their learning journey.
