

Primary Geography Subject Spotlight – Evaluating the quality of Education
Monday 10th July 2023 – 1.00pm – 4.00pm

This training is facilitated by Paul Longden

Paul's experience includes being a head teacher at three schools and providing leadership training packages for the Centre of Educational Leadership in Manchester. He is a serving OFSTED inspector and provides leadership support to a range of multi academy trusts and over 150 schools nationally.

This course is aimed at primary practitioners to take them through the process of exploring and evaluating the Geography subject curriculum.

The day will focus on:

- Developing and enhancing understanding of the Quality of Education section of the Education Inspection framework
- Review the intent and ambition of your own subject curriculum
- Review / develop / enhance your curricular planning including progression documents
- Access a range of resources to support the delivery of the curriculum
- Explore each part of the “deep dive” process and how this links to the school's own monitoring evidence base
- Engage with academic research to support the development of pedagogy within the subject
- Discussion on how to conduct a subject audit
